

Indonesian Grammar Public Group Class

Dates and duration

Every Wednesdays from 29 March – 24 May from 7-10PM (excluding PH on 10 May)

Venue

Singapore Management University School of Social and Economics Sciences
Group Study Room 2.2

Program objectives

This program has 2 immediate objectives:

1. To acquire knowledge on Indonesian grammar.
2. To be able to apply this knowledge in written discourse.

Requirements

Prior knowledge in Indonesian language with at least 500 words vocabulary or has attended our Beginners Conversational Indonesian training (either private/group).

About the program

The program will be focused on Indonesian grammar in writing. This course is ideal for those who would like to further their study on Indonesian language or to enrol in Uji Kemahiran Berbahasa Indonesia (official Indonesian Language Test equivalent to TOEFL).

About the trainer

Susani Muhamad Hatta, a native speaker of Indonesian, graduated from Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia, majoring in English Language and Literature. He has been teaching Indonesian to foreigners since 2007. He is currently a staff of Development Strategy and Language Diplomacy Centre at the Indonesian Language Agency, the Ministry of Education and Culture, Indonesia.

Topics to be covered

1. Noun Phrases
Transitive and Intransitive Sentences
2. Saying “to be” with “adalah” and “ialah”
The difference between “adalah” and “ialah”
The usage of “adalah”, “ialah”, “merupakan”
3. Prepositions
Basic prepositions and other prepositions
4. Uses of “ada”
5. Passive Voice
6. Prefixes and Suffixes
Ber-
MeN-
MeN-kan
MeN-i
Ter-
Ke-an
PeN-
-an
PeN-an and Per-an
7. Uses of “-nya”
8. Uses of “-yang”

About Us

Learn Indonesian Pte. Ltd. has been coaching conversational, business Indonesian to corporate clients since 2004. Our anchor clients include Public Services Department, Milbank Tweed Hadley & McCloy, White & Case LLP, MINDEF, Singapore Cancer Foundation, and many other local and foreign companies. We have been playing a helpful and useful role as Indonesian and Malay trainers, official translators and in-house interpreters. References are available upon request.

Why Choose Us?

Money Back Guarantee!

If by the end of Indonesian Language Training we do not add any value to you, just inform our staff and we will refund you.

Small Group

Attentive trainer to address your questions.

FREE Monthly Networking

Practice with other Indonesian learners or connect with fellow business people to grow your business!

FREE Email Support

You can ask us anything for 6 months after your graduation at no cost!

FREE Training Certificate

Will be issued at the end of the training